Full Description of Items

It is a legal requirement under the Kent County Council Act 2001, to record a sufficient description, where reasonably possible, to identify the article. This should include where appropriate, the number of items being sold, the type of material from which each article is made, the colour, artist's name, brand name or manufacture's identity if revealed by a symbol or mark on each article, the serial number(s), any distinguishing mark of feature on each article and any stock number or other information which is used to distinguish each article while in the dealer's possession. Failure to comply could lead to prosecution.
