Kent Trading Standards have been made aware of a bogus delivery driver operating in the Swanscombe area. He cold called a 92 year old gentleman on Sunday March 13 and told him he had to pay £250 for a parcel he had for him. When the parcel was opened it contained rocks.

Anyone with any information relating to this incident are being asked to telephone DC Andrew Tateson at North Kent Police Station on 01474 366225 or call Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Kent Trading Standards advise consumers to be wary when dealing with people at their door. Please pass this information on to elderly relatives or neighbours especially those living alone.

To report any concerns you have or for details of Buy With Confidence traders call Trading Standards via Consumer Direct on 08454 04 05 06. You can also visit www.buywithconfidence.gov.uk for a list of traders.
